SAM FULLEN'S LAKESIDE.

Had the track remained dry and fast and the weather warm and bright there is no reason to doubt that the record for attendance at Lakeside would have been smashed Saturday. As it was, about 3,500 people were on hand and they were mostly of the half holiday order. Considering that the afternoon was cold and raw and that the track was a sea of mud this is an excellent example of how Chicago folk will turn out to see stake races run.

Saturday's attraction was the Lakeside stakes for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and a sixteenth, with a guaranteed value of $1,800. Ten horses with some pretensions to fair class were named to start and only one, Tenby, declined the issue.

The public pinned its faith to "Wood" Hoffman's Cavalier—Lena Oliver colt, Sam Fullen, and backed him consistently at 7 to 5. The colt was only asked to carry 93½ pounds and the best rider at the track, Tommy Knight, was up. All close followers of form figured Sam Fullen the best and he "delivered the goods" like a gentleman. Knight broke third, but he went to the front passing the stand and was never again headed.

From a time standpoint the race was a phenomenal one and stamps Sam Fullen as being a colt of high degree, especially in heavy going. He stepped the first quarter around the turn in 25½ seconds and went to the half in 50½. This was a terrific pace considering the condition of the track and it did not seem possible that he could stick it out to the end. He did, however, and cantered home pricking his ears. John Baker, a horse with a noted reputation as a mudlark, finished second and "Pa" Bradley's iron horse, Boney Boy, beaten, but not disgraced, was a far away third.

O'Connell, now in his eleventh year, beat some fast sprinters as he pleased in the fifth race. This ancient son of Harry O'Fallon—May Kennedy looks better now than he ever did and seems as active as any two-year-old on the track. Presumably owned by T. Costello, the feed man, the old horse is always a public favorite. He was a 1 to 3 chance in this race but Mr. Costello, who wears a look wiser than Solomon ever dared to put on, said before the race that he did not think the fold horse would win.

Jake Marklein prices his colt Garry Hermann at $7,500, while Money Muss can be bought for $1,200. Considering the hard tussle the latter gave Garry Hermann, it seems that the jovial "Jaakey" may have his colt over-rated or else there is a chance for some energetic horseman to pick up a prize in Money Muss. The pair has met twice, and in both instances Money Muss has outrun the champion Garry, but has not been able to stall him off in the run through the stretch. In Saturday's half mile scramble, however, it took Garry Hermann's very best efforts to get up, and in doing so he swerved badly and almost caused a foul.

Rome Respass was down hook, line and sinker on Abe Furst to win the high-weight selling race and the Baker & Gentry cast-off won gallantly. He was outsprinted during the early part of the journey by Braw Lad and also interfered with by him in the run home, but Abe was at his best and overcame all difficulties, and at the finish was a half-length winner.

Six of the seven races went to heavily backed favorites and the ring must have received a sound drubbing.

HAWTHORNE'S STAKE DATES.

Condition books were issued yesterday for the spring meeting at Hawthorne, which opens the regular racing season in Chicago, beginning a week from tomorrow. There will be eleven days of racing, opening on May 28th and closing on June 8th. During this time seven stake events will be run, the dates for the various fixtures being as follows:

Flight Stakes—Monday, May 28.
Hawthorne Handicap—Wednesday, May 30.
Test Stakes—Thursday, May 31.
Speculation Stakes—Saturday, June 2.
Juvenile Stakes—Monday, June 4.
June Stake—Wednesday, June 6.
Hawthorne Stakes—Friday, June 8.

Six races will be given each day, the purse events being for $400 each. Steeplechases will be given three times a week, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays. A number of distance races are also carded, the longest being at a mile and three furlongs. This feature will be extended as the season advances and the horses become accustomed to going a route.

Earnshaw Bros.' stable, including Einstein and Harry Thoburn, arrived at Hawthorne yesterday. A. M. Linnell also got in with a lot of jumpers, among which is the well-known fencer, Viking.

W. K. Levering, a business man at Baltimore, has notified secretary Letcher that he has bought a strong string of jumpers and will be at Hawthorne with them in a few days.

In a private letter to Manager McEvoy, "Hops" Laudeman writes that Goodrich and Medford, two of his best bread winners, have broken down and must be retired. Laudeman also states that W. H. May & Son have decided lic expectation had been that "Dick" Dwyer would send the horses away at Hawthorne as well as at Washington Park and Harlem, but the powers that control at Hawthorne concluded to introduce a new expert. Holtman was formerly "Curley" Brown's assistant. Last year he did the starting at Newport and on the Northern Circuit tracks, and made a good impression. Good starters are rare birds, and if Holtman wins favor by good work here his addition to the list of recognized experts will be welcomed with approval.

Harry Kuhl, the former secretary and associate judge at Hawthorne, will serve his first term as a presiding judge. Mr. Kuhl is well equipped for the place. He knows the rules thoroughly, is cool-headed, and has had a long training under competent people. He is popular with horsemen and the race-going public.

The post of associate judge falls to C. E. Trevathan, a turf writer and authority of reputation. He has served as presiding steward at Washington Park, in 1894, and as judge for four years at the Bay District track at San Francisco. Mr. Trevathan is best known, perhaps, by reason of his newspaper connections, his writings on turf affairs being sought for by the best papers in the country. Like Mr. Kuhl, he is a man of cool, impartial mind, well versed in the rules and of the temperament and disposition to make an excellent official in the stand.

MORRIS PARK TRACKS.

In response to numerous queries concerning the different courses at Morris Park, DAILY RACING FORM presents a diagram that should thoroughly enlighten all inquirers. The big outer course, the Withers mile, the three-quarters straight of the Eclipse course and the windings of the steeplechase course are all distinctly shown.

to give Chicago the go-by for a time and will ship all their horses, including Avenstoke, Ed Tipton, The Rush, Ep, Bob Baker, and Otis Harlan, to Brighton Beach. They think the influx of good horses to Chicago this summer will make the game too strong here, and they will try their fortunes in the east. Ed Bradley will ship Piccola and Brigade to Brighton in the same car with the May stable.

HAWTHORNE'S OFFICIALS.

The list of officials who will govern the various departments of racing at Hawthorne this year was made public yesterday and is as follows:

Presiding judge—Harry Kuhl.
Associate judge—Charles E. Trevathan.
Secretary—Wm. R. Letcher.
Treasurer—E. G. Franklin.
Starter—Jacob J. Holtman.
Patrol judge—H. T. White.
Clerk of scales—H. F. Moore.
Entry clerk—J. Randolph.
Official timer—George Farnsworth.
Press agent—W. J. Jackman.
The surprise in the list is the selection of Holtman for starter. In a general way the public Secretary Letcher is a Kentucky product, a man who has been raised in a race horse atmosphere. He has been identified with racing ever since he was old enough to take an interest in the sport. He was made secretary of the Cincinnati Jockey Club at Oakley at the time of its organization in 1892, and held the position until the club was dissolved 1898. Last year he was assistant to Secretary Kuhl and became well acquainted with the Chicago race-going public and the men who will have stables here this year.

Frank A. McEvoy, the manager of the track, made his debut in this important position last season with signal success. Under his direction the Cicero track had one of the most profitable seasons in its history, and the racing was uniformly clean and attractive to the public. Mr. McEvoy is a Chicago man who has long been identified with racing in various capacities, and has made a thorough study of it from a business standpoint.

The rest of the new officials are more or less known to race-going people and are all men who seem to be thoroughly fitted for the various duties that will fall to them.

NEWPORT'S PROSPECTS.

Manager Frank Fowler of the Newport race track expects to be out of doors at will hereafter, having entirely recovered from his recent attack of appendicitis. Mr. Fowler will give his entire attention at once to the Newport race meeting, which begins Monday. The prospects for the meeting are very good, and it is expected to be the best met in the history of the Queen City Jockey Club. All that will be required to make the meeting a success financially will be the presence in the betting ring of enough bookmakers to enable the track to get a fair daily revenue. This, combined with the gate receipts and other sources of income, it is figured, will make Newport a good financial winner this spring. As for the racing, Secretary Roger Sullivan says it will be the best the track has had in years. Nearly all the best horses that took part in the Louisville meeting will come here, some stabling at Newport and others at Latonia. As Latonia and Newport race on alternate weeks, the same class of horses will, in the main, be seen at both tracks. In the program issued for the first week of racing at Newport, provision has been made for several good overnight handicaps, and, in consequence, some fast and clean sport may be expected. Every one will recall what good racing there was at Newport last fall, and how many of the handicaps resulted in stirring contests that were fought down to the last jump. Secretary Sullivan says the same quality of sport will be seen at the meeting which begins Monday.

As regards bookmakers, Manager Fowler says he expects the same men who will book at Latonia will have their slates up at Newport. It is expected that ten bookmakers will be in line at Newport next Monday, as a number of prominent pencilers have decided to come here instead of going to St. Louis and Chicago.

Starter Jake Holtman has been busy at Newport each morning since his arrival here several days ago schooling green two-year-olds to the barrier. Jake has been successful in breaking a number of youngsters that were inclined to be flighty when facing the barrier, and he says he does not expect to have much trouble next Monday. Holtman has made a fine record with the flag at Newport, and he is one of the best starters in the west. His work at Newport last fall could not have been improved upon, and it is assured good starting will be one of the features of the meeting.

Jackson Smith, the popular L. & N. Railroad official, will be the presiding judge, and his associates will be Henry Queen and Secretary Sullivan. Judge Smith is one of the most capable racing officials that has ever been in a local stand, and Newport, under his eye, can be expected to keep up the clean sport it has always given the public in the past.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Barney Schreiber did not start Sofala in the Debutante stakes at St. Louis and said before the race: "My filly has not been right since her long journey across the Rocky Mountains. She has been off her feed, and I have been compelled to borrow some California hay from Captain Hackett, owner of Yellow Tail, and mix it with our Missouri hay to induce her to eat. It will be an impossibility to get her ready for Saturday's race, and it would be an injustice to her, myself, the association and the public to think of starting her. She will be ready later on, and when she does start, I want the public as well as myself to think that she is fit to win."

Lackland established a new hurdle record at a mile and three-quarters Wednesday by running the distance in 3:12½. The previous record, 3:16½, was made by Ben Eder, May 24, 1899.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Thursday night Mr. Edward Corrigan's horses, destined for a campaign in England, were shipped from Hawthorne for New York. There they will be embarked on the good steamer
Minneapolis, which is to depart May 26. Mr.
Corrigan will take passage on the same vessel.
The horses that will invade the tight little island are Geyser, Golden Rule, M. F. Tarpey, Dr.
Sheppard, Chimura, Sardonic, St. Casimir,
Oremus, Sam Tate, Colonel Bartlett, Father
York, Tarsney, Adolph Spreckels and one other. Eastern turfmen have conducted important racing operations in England from time to time, but never before has a western owner of prominence taken a strong stable over.
It is quite certain that Mr. Corrigan's venture will be regarded with interest in the west and the fortunes of his racers will be closely followed. In his opinion his horses can be made ready by the time of the Newmarket July meeting and will probably make their first essays at that important meeting.

Winner—Ch. f. by Silver Fox—Asteria.

Went to post at 2:15. Off at the first break to a perfect start. Won easily; second and third handily. Sister Fox was the best of a bad lot and held the others safe all the way. Cora Havill II. displayed a fondness for mud and ran a surprisingly good race. Refugee broke flying, had clear sailing, and did his best, which was not much. Zacatoso was bumped and jostled on the first turn and treated roughly throughout. This considered, his race was a good one. Satan showed some speed, but retired early. It was a tired lot behind the first three at the finish.

Scratched—17857 Glonoine, 112; 17882 Ollie J., 101; 17856 Sorrel Rose, 85.

Overweights—Round O, 3½ pounds.

Sister Fox, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Cora Havill II., place, 15 to 1; show 6 to 1. Refugee, show, evens.

Winner—Br. c. by Esher—Silk Gown.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second and third also driving to the limit. Garry Hermann seemed to get away all in a tangle and it took him a long time to settle down into his stride. In the meantime Money Muss, who is a quick breaker, gained a commanding lead and it took Garry Hermann's best efforts to overcome it. Perhaps the latter dislikes the mud. At any rate, he swerved badly and repeatedly from the head of the stretch home. At about the sixteenth post Garry Hermann swerved over in front of Kid Cox, almost causing a foul. The latter was interfered with to a certain extent, but not enough to call for judicial action. Money Muss is a good, honest youngster and seems to run well in any kind of going. Robert Waddell ran a fair race. Sad Sam was never dangerous.

Scratched—(17818) The Cuban Girl, 110; Cora Moree, 107.

Winner—Br. h. by Himyar—Briar.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving and out to the last ounce; third and fourth driving also. ABE FURST was ridden to perfection and ran a smashing good race. Knight waited cleverly with the horse until the stretch was reached then he went to and passed Braw Lad like a flash. The latter got away flying and displayed a fine turn of speed. Caywood used him entirely too much going down the backstretch and when the finish came Braw Lad had nothing left to finish with. Caywood also resorted to doubtful tactics in the stretch. He tried to carry ABE FURST out and also hit the latter over the nose with his whip. Barney F. ran well and finished stoutly. Orion shot his bolt early and quit badly in the stretch. Little Reggie made up ground throughout. Damocles seemed lame going to the post.

Scratched—15202 Annis Palmer, 115; 17855 Heroics, 127; 17859 Rival Dare, 131; 17859 Tenole, 129; 17820 Papa Harry, 129.

ABE FURST, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Braw Lad, place, 4 to 5; show, 3 to 10. Barney F., show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Cavalier—Lena Oliver.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly. Third driving. Sam Fuller ran a phenomenal race. He reveled in the going, and set a terrific pace, which only himself could stand. From the head of the stretch home the colt simply loafed. John Baker had all of his speed and ran a good race. Boney Boy was much used trying to catch Sam Fuller, and tired quite badly in the run through the stretch. Malay hardly ran up to his best form, still his race was far from being a bad one. Hood's Brigade about ran his race. Both Myth and Eva Rice were dull of speed.

Scratched—15261 Tenby, 111; 17857 Red Pirate, 107.

Overweights—Sam Fuller, 2½ pounds.

Winner—Ch. g. by Harry O'Fallon—May Kennedy.

Went to post at 4:25. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. O'Connell is in fine form and was in a soft spot. He galloped all contenders into submission in going the first half, and from the head of the stretch home had an easy time of it. Dr. Walmsley was far outrun in the first part of the journey but when he got into his stride he made up much ground and about ran his race. Maggie Davis closed strongly in the last three furlongs. Brulare made a strong bid for third place on the stretch turn but hung at the end. Both Inlook and Emma M. are fast but neither is stout hearted. Ed Gartland II. seems to be of little or no present account. Waldo, on Maggie Davis, broke his stirrup shortly after leaving the post.

Scratched—17695 Wedding Guest, 98; 17785 Peace, 97; (17820) St. Cuthbert, 105; 17844 Ben Ledi, 109; 17784 Digger, 101; 17785 Miss Shanley, 85; (17784) Midlight, 101; 17267 Ailanto, 110; 17821 Jim Gore II, 103; 17847 Prestar, 105.

Winner—Ch. c. by De Beauvoir—Fanny Lyons.

Went to post at 4:55. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second and third were hard pressed. Owensboro seems to be a useful selling plater and has a fondness for heavy going. Rose rated the colt cleverly in front and after Holdup cracked he had everything his own way. Schnell-laufer had no excuses and ran a good race. Monk Wayman seems to be improving but is nowhere near as good a horse as he was last season. Holdup improved on the muddy track. Mud is his forte. Flick made a very weak effort on Admetus. Throw this race out for him. The others plodded along Indian file and were never factors.

Scratched—17878 Ibinhere, 78; 17883 Tony Honing, 103; (17855) Meddler, 103; 17847 Talma, 88; 17819 Jimp, 110.

Overweights—Schnell-laufer, 2½ pounds; Owensboro, 2½.

Winner—Blk. h. by Dochart—Pearl Street.

Went to post at 5:20. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after an early drive; second and third were all out. Walkenshaw was best and best ridden. Narvaez got off finely, was always in a good position and did quite a clever bit of jockeyship at the head of the stretch. At this point Evelyn Byrd was crowding Walkenshaw pretty close and Narvaez, fearing the filly would beat him, pulled to the outside and hit Evelyn Byrd a terrific bump. The latter bounced off from Walkenshaw like a rubber ball and after that never really got into her stride again. At that she ran a greatly improved race. Tillie W. finished gamely under punishment and is in winning form. Louisville suffered from bad handling. The first four were the only contenders.

Scratched—17804 Her Favor, 105; 17773 Isabey, 110; 17847 Miss Ross, 105; 17855 Myosotis, 101; 15756 Donation, 107.

Overweights—Rosavannah, 2½ pounds.

Walkenshaw, place 2 to 5; show, out. Tillie W., place, 2 to 1, show evens. Evelyn Byrd, show, 1 to 2. Louisville, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second driving. Volkman went right to the front and made all his own running and won without trouble. McAddie ran a very good race, but had about all he could do to beat Poyntz for second place. The Conqueror ran poorly as compared with his last time out. Mattie Bain ran a bad race. Prosper La Gai will hardly do on his showing today.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. Third easily. Pink Coat ran a remarkably good race although Vandusen outrode Boland in every part of the race. His Excellency, better ridden, might have won. He was cut off on the upper turn and lost a couple of lengths and Boland put up a weak ride at the finish. Tragedy was outclassed and Grayless was never dangerous. Pink Coat was worked out 1 1-8 miles the mile in 1:39, the 1 1-8 in 1:32 and it was done very handily. He is a great horse now.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Ollie Dixon was well placed throughout and strongly ridden at the finish, wearing Beana down in the last eighth. Beana is now in fine form and ran a good race. Maccabee, badly off at the start, ran a fair race but had to make up too much ground. Waterhouse showed a good deal of early speed but died away at the finish. Possum ran a bad race and Elkin a worse one.
Scratched—(17877) Lennep, 107.

Winner—B. f, by Falsetto—Manola.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. The first four were driving hard. Etta ran a wonderfully good race. She appeared to be hopelessly out of it at the head of the stretch, but Overton brought her up with a resistless rush at the finish, riding a magnificent race. Scarlet Lily also ran a fine race and showed much improvement. Cleora was somewhat interfered with at the head of the stretch but seemed to be winning an eighth out. Unshightly had no excuses. Anna Bain showed fine speed early but quit badly at the finish. Tigris was fifth on sufferance.
Scratched—17851 Lady Elite, 112; 17891 Nettie Regent, 112.

Queen Litze made a very good showing. The Butcher, when looking all over a winner, quit badly. Censor bolted on the upper turn. Virginia T. won't do.

Winner—Br. c, by Magnetizer—Mon Droit.
Went to post at 5:15. At post 6 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a drive; second easily. Dieudonne ran well with his light weight and was well handled by Porter. He came with a rush in the last sixteenth and finished strongly. Sound Money was shut off in the stretch, but for which he would probably have finished in front. Oonee was tiring badly at the finish. Isabinda has been given a little too much of it at this meeting and shows the effects of the wear and tear. Guess Me ran well for two-thirds of the route and then gave it up. The others cut no figure.

Winner—B. g. by Meddler—Little Lady II.
At post 24 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. King's Highway was managed well and saved at the post. He took kindly to the going and had a clear route to travel. Also Ran II, ran a fairly good race, but tired in the stretch and may have been short. The delay at the post hurt Lord Neville's chance. He was away in front in most of the numerous break-aways. Myrtle Van can do better. The others were outclassed.
Scratched—17829 Lady Curzon, 101.
Overweights—Also Ran II, 4 pounds; Joe Gammage, 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Hermence—Aala Lala.
At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second easily. Miss Mae Day was weighted to her liking and made a runaway race of it. Sam Phillips ran well and is a grand three-year-old but is a trifle high in flesh just now. He will be benefited by the race. Pinochle ran his race. Guide Rock showed a dash of early speed.
